IV. Items for Discussion:

2. Guidance for “Revision or Add Course?” Dilemmas.

2021-168    7326  GEOG 4300  Revise Course

Current Copy:

GEOG 4300. Advanced Physical Geography
3.00 credits
Prerequisites: GEOG 2300 or instructor consent; open to juniors or higher.
Grading Basis: Graded
Problems involving the application of physical processes in our changing environment.

Proposed Copy:

GEOG 4300. Classic Papers in Climate Science
3.00 credits
Prerequisites: GEOG 2300 or instructor consent; open to juniors or higher.
Grading Basis: Graded

An examination of the defining primary literature in the evolution of climate science to the present state of knowledge. Topics may include the Greenhouse Theory of Climate, El Niño, Climate Prediction, and regional processes of interest (e.g., monsoons, storm tracks, desert dynamics).

Current Copy:

GEOG 5390. Advanced Physical Geography
3.00 credits | May be repeated for a total of 6 credits.
Prerequisites: None.
Grading Basis: Graded

Problems involving the application of physical processes in our changing environment.

Proposed Copy:

GEOG 5300. Classic Papers in Climate Science
3.00 credits | May be repeated for a total of 6 credits.
Prerequisites: May not be taken for credit by students who have passed GEOG 4300.
Grading Basis: Graded

An examination of the defining primary literature in the evolution of climate science to the present state of knowledge. Topics may include the Greenhouse Theory of Climate, El Niño, Climate Prediction, and regional processes of interest (e.g., monsoons, storm tracks, desert dynamics).

Add Course (S)

SOCI 2315. Guns and Society
3 credits
Prerequisites: None

[2021-226] COMM Review 4+1 FastTrack (Guest: Ken Lachlan)

4+1 FastTrack B.A./M.A. Program in Communication

Students pursuing a UConn undergraduate B.A. degree in Communication can apply to use up to 12 credits of graduate-level coursework taken as an undergraduate towards an M.A. degree in Communication. By joining the COMM FastTrack program, undergraduate Communication majors can enroll in graduate Communication courses and complete the requirements for both degrees over a period of five total years.

This program is intended for undergraduates pursuing a B.A. in Communication; students must meet all requirements for the B.A. degree. The M.A. program requires students to complete two graduate-level methodology courses (COMM 5001 and 5002) as well as two graduate-level core theory courses (COMM 5100, 5200, 5230, 5300, 5660, or 6850.) An additional 21 credits of graduate-level coursework must be completed, including one of the exit options; most FastTrack students will complete the Master’s Project (COMM 5979) as an exit option.

Beyond required graduate-level courses, each FastTrack student’s plan of study and sequencing of courses will differ; support from a student’s assigned FastTrack advisor will assist in the selection and sequencing of courses. As an example, below is a potential student plan to complete the M.A. requirements during the fourth and fifth years.

- Year 4 Fall: Two Graduate Courses (including one core theory course)
- Year 4 Spring: Two Graduate Courses (including one core theory course)
- Year 4 Summer: One Graduate Course (COMM 5991 Internship)
- Year 5 Fall: Three Graduate Courses (including COMM 5001)
- Year 5 Spring: Two Graduate Courses (including COMM 5002) and COMM 5979, Master’s Project

Academic Qualifications:
For admission to the FastTrack program in Communication, students should be in Year 3 or later of the B.A. in Communication, and have a 3.00 cumulative grade-point-average or better at the time of application. Students should have completed COMM 2000Q and at least two 2000-level core courses by the time of application.
To apply, students must submit:

- Unofficial transcripts for all college-level studies regardless of if a degree was awarded.
- A current resume.
- A 2-3 page double-spaced personal statement explaining your interest in the program, why you are pursuing the program, and how this program can help you reach your career goals.
- A copy of or a screenshot of their SAT or ACT scores. If you do not have access to these scores or if you do not remember them, please state that in your application email.

We seek highly motivated students who are committed to the discipline and the pursuit of a graduate degree. Please note that to count graduate courses toward the M.A. in communication, FastTrack students approaching their undergraduate graduation must still apply to - and be accepted by - the graduate school. FastTrack students will be provided guidance on this process as part of their enrollment in the program. The Graduate School requires students to maintain at least a B (3.00) cumulative grade point average in the 33 credits used for the M.A. degree.

Costs

Students can complete up to 12 credits of graduate-level coursework as an undergraduate as part of their undergraduate education costs. Students are subsequently responsible for the cost of at least 21 credits of graduate education.

Advising

During the undergraduate portion of their work, admitted FastTrack students will be paired with an advisor from the graduate faculty in Communication. Once a FastTrack student has completed the undergraduate degree and been accepted to the graduate school, the student may elect to continue working with the faculty advisor or select a new advisor from the graduate faculty. The advisor provides guidance in course selection and preparation for the M.A. Project or alternative exit options.

2021-233 LLAS Revise Major

Current Copy:

Prerequisite for the major
A 1000-level introductory course on Latino or Latin American Studies.

Required Courses (16 credits)

2. Experiential Learning Requirement. Choose six credits from:
   a. Community immersion project (combination of Independent Study LLAS 3999, Field Work LLAS 4212, or service-learning courses that involve Latino American community)
   b. Urban Semester with Latino Studies focus (INTD 3584 and INTD 3594 or 3590, the internship itself); additional credits can count as related courses, or towards the capstone)
   c. Study abroad courses or internship in Latin American or Caribbean Studies
3. Capstone project: LLAS 4994W or comprehensive project through Urban Semester (three credits)

Elective Courses (nine credits)

Elective courses must have a LLAS designation, and must fall within content area of chosen concentration, either Latino or Latin American Studies.
Related Courses (12 credits)

Language Requirement

Intermediate proficiency in a language spoken in Latin America is required for students focusing in Latin America, and proficiency in Spanish is strongly suggested for students focusing on Latinos in the United States. Proficiency can be demonstrated in one of the ways below:

- Take at least one 3000-level or above course in literature, culture, film or the arts in the target language
- Pass equivalent language exam
- Requirement waived for native speakers
